Social entrepreneurship as a women way to the active citizenship

NEWSLETTER 1

We are happy to introduce the project named SEWAC - Social entrepreneurship as a women way to the active citizenship. The main aim of this project is to show women the active approach towards life through involvement in social entrepreneurship. The project is implemented by organizations from several European countries: Poland, Romania, Italy, Greece and Lithuania.

We invite women, who are already involved in the social economy, as well as those, who would like to become ones, to participate in SEWAC. Having opportunity to meet, they will be able to learn from each other's experiences, understand better the meaning and practical side of social entrepreneurship, find fresh motivation to be active and discover their potential through involvement in social economy, and much, much more!

In each partner country:

- ☑ Good practices of women's involvement in social entrepreneurship will be collected and shared with participants from other countries – experienced participants will write their recommendations and on the basis of them the blogs will be created;
- ☑ Knowledge and the meaning of social entrepreneurship, its roles and models will be explored;
- ☑ Promotion of the social entrepreneurship as an innovation way, resourcefulness and opportunity to address social and environmental challenges of women will be done by seminars connected to the international SEWAC meetings;
- ☑ Disadvantaged groups of women will be encouraged to become active citizens;
- ☑ Motivation trainings will be organized.
